

[Your Name], conductor of light,

I am successful, secure in my finances and in my love.

I am a product of everything in my environment. I have been shaped by the blessings that were put in my way. The obstacles in my path allowed me to grow and shape myself into a person I am proud of.

I love and appreciate myself, my gifts, my capabilities, my compassion and my grace in grave circumstances. I know I can trust my intuition and follow it as it guides me to greater heights.

I have faith that I can work towards and manifesting the resources I need for my further growth and security. I am settled in the power of my confidence and cannot be shaken from it, no matter what winds are blown towards me.

I attract love that settled within itself, and supports me, guides me, and helps me in my endeavors. I choose the love that I wish to keep and give it back equally.

I am a conductor of light in everything I do, and I joyfully embrace life and all its complexities.

Shining brightly,

[Your Name]
