Dear Fellow Alpha Beta Gamma Delta Members,

James Frank is the only one I can think about that I can recommend as a new fraternal partner.

Frank and I were neighbors and attended the same high school in Clayton, Ohio. I bumped into James while visiting my house during the holidays. He told me that he was coming to our university to pursue a degree in pharmacology and that he had considered joining our fraternity.

Back in Clayton, James was still a famous figure. He was the basketball team's star point guard and was always at the top of his class in every issue. Even though we haven't seen each other in a long time, our conversation last week persuaded me that he hasn't changed anything.

James told me that he has been playing point guard for Clayton College's basketball team and that he is already at the top of his class. James is a wonderful time to be around, and he knows how to strike a balance between having a good time and being focused at school. His success at school and on the basketball team attests to his ability to get along with his classmates.

I have no question that having James as a member would benefit our fraternity. Please contact me if you have any concerns or need any additional details to facilitate James's welcoming.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Jason Smith
