

Dear Sam (owner's name),

Though we live under the same roof, it was important for me to write this letter on your big day! If there was an owner appreciation day, I would have waited till then but your birthday seemed more appropriate for this note. Happy Birthday, paw-tner!

I have been your paw-tner for six years and I have loved my paw-some life with you every moment. Our adventures, hikes, long drives, surfing, oh how much I love it all! I can't tell you enough how lucky I am to have you. You are the coolest, bravest, and the most loving hooman I know. You are simply the best! Thank you for everything that you do for me. From the pup-cakes, puppuccino, to the best treats one could have, you spoil me with it all.

I know there have been moments when I have been clumsy and messy, and of late, I'm going through a rough pooch with my moody self. But, you are so patient and kind to tolerate all my unusual behavior.

Just wanted to tell you that I'm mutts about you and wish to continue having this paw-some life with you! Thank you so much for showering your love on me.

(Ps: I get jealous sometimes when you pay more attention to Felix the cat!)

Love you loads

Your fur-ever

Max
