

Dear Mom,

Happy Birthday!

Today, I have decided to tell you how grateful I am to have you as my mom.

Since my childhood, I have seen you struggling to adjust in our family. I know it was hard. But I am happy to see how integral you have become for us. Your love for Karen and me has made both of us realise the value of a pure relationship.

The cakes you baked and the sherbets you made, always left us awestruck. Your efficiency and honesty have made me look up to you. I love you, mom.

I wish you a hundred more happy birthdays.

I will be with you for dinner tonight.

Yes, this was my surprise.

Take care, Ma.

Yours Lovingly,

XYZ
