

Dearest Daddy,

Some dads tell (.....) to their sons. Some dads tell (.....) to their sons, while some dads tell their sons to be (.....). But, YOU, my dad has always asked me to be kind-hearted, honest and a loving person.

I just wish everyone's Dad was like you - teaching their son the core values of life rather than materialistic things. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your teachings.

Love Always,

XYZ
