
Dear ____

As soon as I thought about opening my restaurant I knew I had to get you, the best food photographer in town. I was not disappointed at all. The life you bring to all the photographs is unbelievable, it got me wondering if my food genuinely tastes as good as it looks. You are incredible and no wonder why your reputation precedes you. I've sent the menus to be printed, and hope the print does justice to your amazing pictures. Your artistic style is unique and so refreshing. I cannot seem to thank you enough. I am sending you an opening night invitation, do visit us. Drinks are on us!

With love
