

MAIL to SELF

Dear [Boss/Name of the boss],

Thank you for rewarding me with a bonus that I might say is generous and humbling. I can now understand that the company is not inconsiderate towards the hard-working employees. Please accept my humble appreciation for passing along the opportunities that define my career.

Some people have always complained about the lack of connection between work and reward. But this company has always taken care of its employees well-being. They practice what they preach and that is why this is the best company to work for. Thank you for the bonus. Here's wishing to be a part of many more successful milestones at the company.

To share the success of this company with its employees is an encouragement in itself. I appreciate the bonus and am excited to be a part of what's ahead at the company. This generosity has changed my impression of the company to dependable and worthy.

Thank you
